EVENTS OF INTEREST

IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Newly Married Couple to Spend Two Months Here.

Last Night's Dinner and Other Parties—Days at Home.

A lovely wedding yesterday was that of Miss Katherine Rochester and Mr. Leland Stanford Briggs of New York and Washington. The ceremony was at the home of the bride's brother, John C. Rochester, at Ardley-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., and the couple started later in an automobile trip. They will reside in this city until March, when they will go back to New York and live on East 52d street, Rev. Dr. Townsend of All Angels' Church, New York city, officiated.

The bride was attended by Miss Marie Louise Reid and Miss Leigh Rochester, her cousins. The flower girl was Miss Elizabeth Rochester. The best man was Steele Watkins and Robert Biglow was usher. Two hundred guests were present. The ceremony took place in the library, which was decorated with ferns and pink and yellow roses, and the wedding dinner was served in the conservatory. The bride wore a gown of white satin trimmed with point lace. Her veil of tulle was fastened with orange blossoms. She carried lilies-of-the-valley and white orchids.

Requests Made by Miss Dodge.
NEW YORK, January 5.—Miss Grace Headley Dodge, the philanthropist, who died in this city December 27 last, left more than $1,200,000 to public and religious institutions, under her will filed here for probate. Requests include $500,000 each to the teachers' college of Columbia University and the national board of the Young Women's Christian Association of the United States.

PLAN BIG MISSION MEETINGS.

Baptist Women Will Have Noted Speakers at Session.

Mrs. Henry W. Peabody, chairman of the national united mission study conferences, and Mrs. William A. Montgomery, missionary writer and speaker, are to be in Washington next week in attendance upon the quarterly sessions of the Baptist Women's Missionary Association of the District and the jubilee committee of 1911.

Mrs. Wallace Radcliffe, chairman, has arranged for two large international meetings next Sunday. The first one of these will be held in the First Congregational Church at 3rd and Rock, and will be a mass meeting for women. Mrs. Peabody and Mrs. Montgomery will be the speakers, and will tell of their recent trip around the world in the interest of world-wide missions, on which they visited many of the missions of the various foreign mission boards.

Sunday evening Mrs. Charles W. Richardson will open her Connecticut avenue home for a meeting of physicians and nurses, at which it is hoped to form an auxiliary society in Washington to aid medical missions.

Conover Speaker in Ohio House.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, January 5.—The Ohio legislature convened yesterday in its eighty-first session. The message of Gov. James M. Cox dealt almost exclusively with state problems. Republicans control both branches of the legislature. Charles D. Conover of Urbana was elected speaker of the house, the democracy casting its vote for John F. Kramer of Mansfield.

CLUB CAR FOR FLORIDA TRIP.

Distinctive Feature of the Seaboard Air Line's Limited.

The Seaboard Air Line's "Florida Limited" passed through Washington last night at 8 o'clock, stopping only long enough to take on Washington passengers for Palm Beach and other points south. Continuing through the Florida season, this train will leave Washington daily at 8:10 p.m., reaching most Florida resorts with only one night out.

The train, which was composed of brand-new Pullmans, consisted of two seven-compartment cars, two drawing-room cars, two with twelve sections, one drawing-room car, the Washington car, with twelve sections and drawing room; dining car, club, library, observation car and baggage car. The road points to its club car as a distinctive feature in Florida travel. All of the cars are of steel construction throughout.

Accompanying the train was a special representative of the road to point out the historic points of interest in the south as the train passes along. But few stops are made. The train meets at Union station by Frank E. Mael, district passenger agent; G. W. Vierbuchen, city passenger agent, and T. E. Kinsey, district superintendent of the Pullman Company.
